

All Around the World

---

Sixth Stop: South America

South America

South America

- It is the 4th largest continent in the world.
- It has the 5th largest population.
- South America contains 12 countries.
- Spanish and Portuguese are the most spoken languages but many others, including English are also spoken.

South America

- The Climate in South America is tropical which means its hot and wet.
- Large areas of rainforest get high temperatures and heavy rainfall.
- Desert and savannah areas are hot all year round with very little rainfall.

Famous Places

Machu Pichu, Peru

Easter Island

Christ the Redeemer, Brazil

Atacama desert

Galapagos Island

Amazon Rainforest

Amazon Rainforest

---

- The world's largest tropical rainforest.
- It stretches across 9 countries in South America.
- The Amazon river runs through the north of the rainforest.
- The tree canopy is so thick that the floor is in complete darkness.
- When it rains it takes 10 minutes for rain to reach the rainforest floor.

Rainforest Animals: Sunlit Zone

---

Tarantula

Butterfly

Macaw

Bats

Rainforest Animals: Canopy

---

Monkeys

Sloth

Toucan

Flying Squirrels

Tree Frog

Rainforest Animals: Understory

---

Gekko

Jaguar

Gorilla

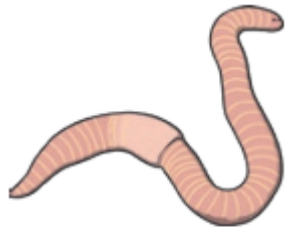

Snake

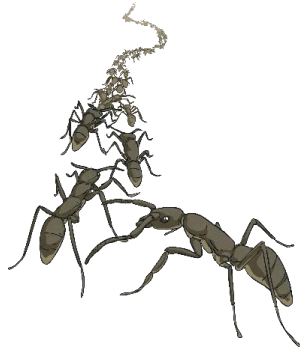

Iguana

Rainforest Animals: Forest Floor

---

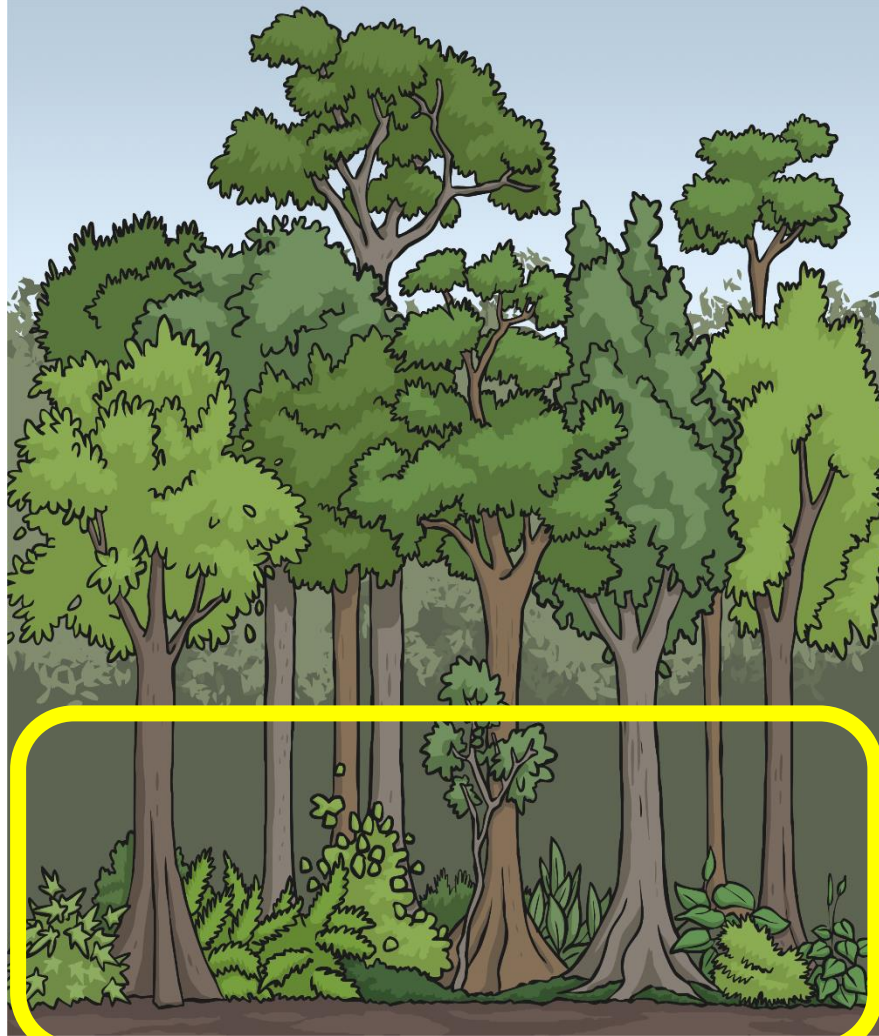

Worms

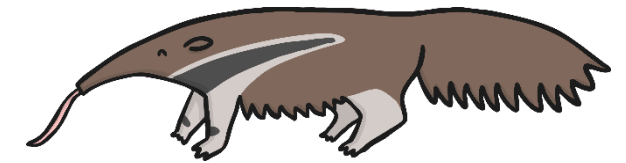

Termites

Scorpions

Slugs

Anteater

