The (Not So) Big Bad Wolf Theatre Visit to Alnwick Playhouse Friday 7th June 2024

Years 1,2,3 and 4

Dear Parents/ Carers,

We are really pleased to have been working with Alnwick Playhouse over the last 2 years enabling us to enjoy Opera and Drama live performances and this term brings another fantastic opportunity.

We have been received full funding for transport through Alnwick Playhouse (this would normally cost us around £200) for our children in Class 1 and 2 to see an afternoon performance of 'The (Not So) Big Bad Wolf at Alnwick Playhouse. All that is asked that families give a donation (suggested donation of £1 or £2) towards the cost of the tickets to Alnwick Playhouse!

About the show

Following on from the success of The Not So Ugly Sisters, and The Not So Grimm Twins, the third in our 'Not So' series of re-imagined fairytales is:

THE NOT SO BIG BAD WOLF

“Welcome back Listeners – Little Red Riding Hood here! Stay tuned as I go undercover to reveal the truth behind fairytales’ most infamous villain – The Big Bad Wolf” Meet Little Red; adventurer, heroine and world-renowned “True Grimm” podcaster. She’s on a mission to debunk the myths around her so called nemesis, with the help of a few storybook favourites, her red invisibility cloak, and a basket full of music, mayhem and magic tricks! But the truth is no Fairytale... Behold as your favourite tales are re-spun and woven together in an epic new adventure from Wrongsemble.

The Not So Big Bad Wolf is performed by two actor musicians, featuring original live music and puppetry!

Children will have lunch at school then travel by coach to Alnwick Playhouse, watch the performance and then return to school in time for the usual end of day arrangements.

All children please wear full school uniform. Please return permission either via this slip or by email and if possible a labelled envelope with a donation amount of your choice which we will give directly to Alnwick Playhouse.

Best wishes,

Belinda Athey – Headteacher.
